INTERESTS

At the beginning of January 2004 I travelled round India, Nepal, Asia and Indonesia. I learnt many valuable skills throughout my travels, including the importance of awareness, assertiveness and social/cultural tolerance and understanding

I have completed the 'Duke of Edinburgh' award, which included a trekking expedition in the English Lake District and Scotland. This increased my passion for climbing.

I have climbed Kilimanjaro in Tanzania and participated in extensive treks around the Himalaya's, Asia and Indonesia. These treks have taught me the importance of team work, planning and determination to succeed

I am a regular member and player for Långholmen Football Club. I am also an active runner participating in long distance and obstacle races.
